

Home for the Holidays At the Historic DORN HOUSE

Historic McCormick, South Carolina 206 E. Gold Street

Enhance your Christmas Celebration with a tour of the 1917 Historic Dorn House. Holiday on Main, an annual celebration in McCormick, SC, includes a parade, cookie walk, tree lighting and tours of holiday decorated Dorn Mill Complex and Dorn House, unique historical sites.

The skillfully crafted interior includes a mahogany staircase and beautiful cherry wainscoting in the dining room.

Dorn House parlors and bedrooms feature marble fireplaces and decorative molding. The house is furnished with French Huguenot 1800's period pieces.

The McCormick Garden Club is proud to serve as the decorating sponsor of the Dorn House. This event is a three-time Garden Club of South Carolina First Place winner and two-time National Garden Club First Place awardee for "Decoration of an Historic Building".

DORN HOUSE HISTORIC FACTS

Colonial Revival style and first brick house in McCormick.

The Dorn House was built in 1917 by Joseph Jennings Dorn and his wife, Mabel. Designed by renowned Greenwood, SC architects, J.C. Hemphill and J.E. Summer, the home features:

- ★ Porch with paired Ionic columns
- ★ Open porte-cochere
- ★ Flemish bond brick construction
- ★ Corinthian motif pilasters
- ★ Dentil cornices
- ★ Terracotta tile roof

Family History - Mr. JJ Dorn was the great-nephew of gold miner, William Dorn. He was co-owner of Dorn Lumber and McCormick Manufacturing Co. and President of Dorn Banking Co. JJ Dorn and his brothers operated McCormick Cotton Seed Oil Mill for many years.

Mr. Dorn was elected to the South Carolina State Senate in 1930 and served until 1936.

No admission is charged for this unique experience. Parking, including handicapped accessible, is available at the rear of the house off Virginia Street.

For more information about the Dorn House or dates and events during Holiday on Main call the Chamber of Commerce at: 864-852-2835 or visit www.mccormickscchamber.org.

